“The ego seeks to divide and separate.
Spirit seeks to unify and heal”

Principal's Message

Dear readers,

The creator has endowed in each one of us treasures of love, joy and silence within.

But the Ego and its resultant worry and fear makes us forget the treasures, and we live like a beggar seeking love, joy and silence. Instead of seeking, we should be providing these to others around us.

Festivals associated with different religions are reminders for this fact. Festivities, always brings to our minds the egalitarian society devoid of class and creed. In this egalitarian society teaming up happens and naturally, that helps everyone join hands to work for a common goal of development and prosperity by sharing whatever we have.

In such a society there is no place for division, hatred, corruption, injustice and vengeance. In today's world, whatever issues we come across are the result of those created by our Ego.

So, on every auspicious occasion, let us break the ego, open the eye of intuition to look within. Let's bring joy and love from within. Lets learn to share, care, team up and appreciate the goodness of everyone around us!
