OCTOBER

"You can learn to go way beyond believing in yourself ."

The Beats

Principal's Desk

Dear Readers,

Life is happening every moment, and those who understand and Act, shine in life. Many of us keep our actions on hold for the right time to come and waste the valuable time "now". There is nothing called the right time . That's just an illusion! When we decide to get out of the sofa and start acting, things will fall in line, and accomplishments become a day to day phenomenon.

Never underestimate the power of 'Now' , what we do right now helps us create a beautiful world around us. Remember, the present moment is the only time we can modify our actions and decisions.

Today seems eternal, but it won't exist tomorrow. So, be thankful for the present and start acting right now.
